2. Woody says he has a "hankering" for a bacon sandwich. What does hankering mean?

3. Compare and contrast Woody and Chloe's backpacks. Who made the wisest choices? Of all the items in Woody's backpack, what were his smartest choice and his poorest choice? Why?

4. Woody packs his harmonica in his backpack. How is a harmonica played? Search the classified section of your newspaper. Are there any harmonicas for sale? If so, how much do they cost? What other musical instruments are for sale?

5. Woody and Chloe played The Alphabet Game. As a class, play The Alphabet Game. Go around the room and have each person name something you would take on a picnic. Start with A and go straight through Z. In the spirit of friendly competition, can your class complete The Alphabet Game in 3 minutes?

6. Woody loves to hear from you! Email him at woody@thewoodybooks.com. Tell him what you liked most in the story. Were there any parts that made you laugh out loud? Download a coloring sheet of Chapter 2 while you're there.

Did any class complete The Alphabet Game in 3 minutes? If so, email Woody and tell him. Make sure you include your teacher's name, school, and address. Woody will send a poster for your classroom.
