

Announcing. . .

The Paducah Sun is publishing a pictorial history of our area entitled

A PICTORIAL HISTORY OF PADUCAH AND MCCRACKEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY

Featuring Your Family Photographs

Sponsored by Ray Black & Son

Work is beginning at this time on a local history book which will be available by Christmas 2008. We are seeking photographs from the public that would be good for the pictorial history. The book will contain more than 350 photographs in up to 128 pages.

This book will be bound with an attractive, hard cover, making it heirloom quality.

You will want a copy, not only for yourself, but for your loved ones as well. What a great gift idea for those who call Paducah and McCracken County, Kentucky home.

If you have photos for bygone days, would you share them with us? We're looking for photographs of people, places and events from its earliest days right through the 1990s.

Please fill out the photo information form for each picture to be submitted (available at our office & website). If you have any questions concerning submitting photos, just ask us.

Space may prohibit us from printing every photo submitted. All photos will be returned to their owners unharmed.

Only a limited number of the pictorial history books will be published. To be sure that you get the copies you want, place your pre-publication order today.

Deadline to submit photos is June 30, 2008
